If you don't sign on in time You may get an email like this

Dear user

As we didn't receive your own Soccer Online Referee registration number.

We have assigned for you a temporary username and password. Please send us an email (replying to this email) including your own Referee registration number and we will set up the new username for you. If you can't find it please provide a number which we can set up as your username.

As soon as we receive your own Referee registration number we will email you the new credentials.

Thank you for your cooperation.
